

Mr. and Mrs. Jay H. Hoag, Glen Avon, will leave today for a visit in the Twin Cities.

The Young People's society of Zion Norwegian Lutheran church will entertain at a hiking party to Do-Drop-Inn, Engleside, tonight. There will be 30 in the party. Supper will be served at 8 o'clock, followed by a program.

The Ladies' Aid society of First Methodist church will be entertained by Mrs. E. L. Bradley, Mrs. T. A. Reynolds and Mrs. R. F. Moore in the church parlors this afternoon.

Delegates for the Lake Geneva conference of Girls' clubs will be elected from the Freshman-Sophomore Girls' club of Central high school in two weeks. This was decided upon at a meeting of the club yesterday afternoon. Following the business meeting, the members went in swimming.

Mrs. Morris J. Rapoport of Indianapolis, Ind., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel I. Levin, for a few days.

Division No. 1, A. O. H., entertained at a dancing party at the Auditorium last night. There were 300 guests. La Brosse's orchestra played. The committee consisted of M. J. Harney, Joseph Pierce, F. L. Ryan, W. J. Ryan, W. J. Lynott and James Higgins.