

CENSOR PERMITS PUBLICATION OF PHOTO SHOWING TROOPS IN MID-OCEAN

The navy censor held up this picture for several weeks and even now will not permit much to be said about it. Photo was taken in mid-ocean and shows American vessels laden with troops and supplies and guarded by destroyers headed for France. The photo is interesting, as it shows how hundreds of thousands of American boys will be transported to Europe during the remainder of this year and the first half of next.

Convoy of U. S. ships en route to France with troops and supplies.
