

COTTAGERS FOR SUMMER ENTERTAIN CONSTANTLY

Outings and Picnics at Summer Homes During Week Take the Place of More Formal Affairs.

The coming of warm weather has brought many out-of-town visitors to the western part of the city. Hardly a home there but has one or more guests, some of whom only remain for a day or two, their places being filled by others, and various forms of outings and picnic parties take the place of the more formal indoor affairs. Many of the guests are being ideally entertained by fortunate owners of summer homes at nearby resorts, camping parties also being a form of amusement much affected.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Swanstrom Jr., who have a pretty cottage at Pike lake, always entertain lavishly during the summer season. Hardly a day passes without its quota of visitors. Miss Adelaide Thurston, Duluth's charming young actress, who is an old-time friend of Mrs. Swanstrom, was a week-end guest at the cottage, returning to Duluth where she is passing the summer season, early in the week. During the week Mrs. Swanstrom entertained her cousin, Mrs. Anna Kennedy of Winnipeg, who has returned home. Mrs. E. S. Hall of New York, who is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. W. Swanstrom, and Mrs. Walter M. Evered were guests at the cottage last week; and Mr. and Mrs. Swanstrom have as their guests for several days, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gillon, Mrs. G. Davis and little daughter, Mary, Eleanor, and Mrs. Sadie Smith of San Diego, Cal., former resident of the city. Mr. Davis arrived last night for a week-end visit.

Mrs. Swanstrom and Mrs. Hiram Olson were hostesses to the members of the Duluth Presbyterian society Tuesday afternoon. Luncheon was served at long tables set in the living room and porch, instead of on the lawn as previously planned, on account of the rain. Brown-eyed Susans and Scotch thistles made effective decorations about the rooms and on the tables. About 40 guests attended. A short business meeting followed the luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sermou, who are passing the summer at their Pike lake cottage, have as their guests Mrs. Sermou's brother, Charles Coutra of St. Paul.
