

DRAFTED MEN MUST REPORT SAT., MARCH 30

Official Order was Received by War Department Yesterday.

The last contingent of the first quota of North Dakota men will report at the office of their department on Saturday, March 30 at ten o'clock, in compliance with an official order received by the local war department yesterday.

Geo. A. Bangs, on request of the local draft board, will address the registrants at the farmers' room in the court house before the assembled body repairs to the Commercial Club rooms where a dinner will be served to the soldiers and relatives and friends. A program for their entertainment will be arranged by the board of directors of the club.

The war department at Washington has issued an order, through the local draft boards all over the country to every registrant called for entrapment, demanding a return of his classification card to his local draft board. Failure to comply with same will be reported to the adjutant general by the local board and he will make report to the Provost Marshal General.

It was announced at the local board yesterday that no exception would be made to this order and every registrant failing to make return will be dealt seriously with.

Failure to report promptly at the hour and on the day named is a grave military offense.

A. G. JOHNSON LIVED HERE

Marshalltown, Ia., Postmaster who Died Monday, was Local Merchant.

The funeral of A. G. Johnson, postmaster at Marshalltown, Iowa, who died in Chicago Monday, was held at Marshalltown yesterday and among those attending the obsequies was Frank Brown of this city who has known Mr. Johnson well during the years that he resided in Grand Forks.

A. G. Johnson was born in the city of New York in 1859, his father, August E. Johnson, having come to this country from Norway a few years before. After having spent his early boyhood in Janesville, Wis., Winona, Minn., and Minneapolis, A. G. Johnson, at the age of 18, decided to enter commercial life and went on the road for a millinery house out of Minneapolis, with northern Minnesota and what was then Dakota, as his territory.

He remained on the road from 1877 until September 1, 1880, when he settled at Grand Forks and organized the retail dry goods firm of Parker & Johnson. Mr. Johnson continued in business in this city fourteen years. He disposed of his business at Grand Forks in 1894 and came to Marshalltown to open up territory for Wyman, Partridge & Co., wholesale dry goods, of Minneapolis. He continued with Wyman, Partridge until he was commissioned postmaster, and gave up a better paying position than the postmastership in order to retire from the road and be at home.

Prominent in Marshalltown.

Mr. Johnson was one of the organizers of the Hawkeye Commercial Men's association in 1906, was made the association's first president, and had continued as head of the organization ever since. Mr. Johnson was also president of the Marshalltown club in 1914 and 1915. He was chairman of the county council of defense at the time of his death and had been chairman of the war savings campaign.

Mr. Johnson was a member of the various Masonic bodies, including the blue lodge and the commandery of Marshalltown, and the shrine of Des Moines. He was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal church and was a member of the vestry and treasurer of the church.

In the early nineties, when the Populist movement was rampant in North Dakota, Mr. Johnson came near receiving the party's nomination as United States senator at the hands of the second and third general assemblies. He also was nominated for governor of North Dakota on the Populist ticket.

Mrs. Johnson Grand Forks Native.

Surviving Mr. Johnson are his widow and two sons, Mr. Johnson, prior to her marriage, was Miss Emma Mison of Grand Forks. Mr. Johnson and Miss Mison were married at Grand Forks May 11, 1882. They had one other son, the first born, who died shortly after birth and was unnamed. Mr. Johnson also has a sister, Mrs. Henry Gund of La-Crosse, Wis., and a daughter, Mrs. C. C. Cross of Chicago during her brother's illness.

POSTOFFICE DISCOURAGES HEAVY MAILS

Too Much is Needlessly Sent to Soldiers in France, is Contention.

Word was received here today that the United States postal department is making an effort to reduce the quantity of parcel post sent from this country to the American soldiers in Europe. It is the contention of the department that much of the material which is mailed can be purchased at the contents abroad at reasonable prices.

Among the articles which are considered undesirable for mailing purposes are the following: Biscuits, books, brushes, bouillon, candies, chewing gum, chocolate, chewing gum, cigars, cigars, combs, jam, knives, mirrors, pencils, razors, soap and tobacco and a great many others.

The statement issued today at Washington announces that an examination of six thousand sacks of parcel post revealed the fact that 3,874 pounds of candy, 1,332 pounds of chocolate and 2,338 packages of chewing gum were included in the consignment.

ASK CHANGE IN GRAIN GRADING

Elimination of Class Four and Lower Test in Northern Class Wanted.

(By Geo. A. Benson.)

Minneapolis, Minn., March 22.—North Dakota farmers yesterday joined with Minnesota farmers in asking Charles J. Brand, chief of the Markets bureau, to recommend changes in the proposed federal grain grades so as to lower the test weight per bushel in the Northern class and eliminate entirely class four.

Mr. Brand, who conducted the hearing here, declared that the Department of Agriculture would make its decision known within two weeks. Yesterday's hearing was the last of the series, he has conducted, and as soon as he reaches Washington, he will begin work on his report.

The spokesman for the North Dakota farmers was J. N. Hagan, commissioner of agriculture and labor. The most important changes he demanded were lowering of test weight; elimination of class four, leaving only classes 1, 2, 3 and sample; that barley be taken out of the so-called inseparables and put in with rye; and that a larger percentage of barley and rye be permitted in all grades; that in admixtures of wheats that ten per cent be permitted in No. 1, as long as all No. 1 admixtures go into the same

The farmers as a whole, were strenuously opposed to the proposed grades. They objected to a 15 per cent moisture test claiming that it ought to be 15 per cent. They charged that only the milling interests are benefited by a 13 per cent test.

BOOK CONCERT TO BE UNIQUE LOCAL AFFAIR

Excellent Program Prepared for Musical Treat at Auditorium Tomorrow.

Two thousand books are wanted at the Book concert at the auditorium on Saturday night. This number is in addition to the large contributions of books that have been made by the well worth the price of admission, but the main feature that patrons should consider is that the books are wanted and wanted badly as that is the objective of this concert.

People of Grand Forks and East Grand Forks are promised one of the best treats they have had in a musical way for some time. The concert will begin at 7:30 when the university band, under the direction of its very able leader, H. E. Wilcox, will play a preliminary concert while the crowd is gathering. Then at 8 o'clock there will be community singing for fifteen minutes, under the leadership of Professor W. W. Norton of the university. At 8:15 the concert by the Chicago male quartet will begin and this concert will be one of the finest heard in the city during this season. The singers are all mature musicians possessed of voices of the most excellent quality. They form the Consistory quartet of the Masonic lodge of Chicago and have been in practically every city in the United States in the ritual work of the order. Their program on Saturday night will contain a number of the old favorites among male quartet music, as well as the best things among the newer compositions.

During the evening announcement will be made of the result of the drive in the territory. An estimate will be given not only of the number of books contributed but also an estimate of the proportion of the action to the territory.

Tickets are on sale at the public library, at the university library and at Stone's piano store. The price of admission in one block and ten cents, or for reserved sections, one block and twenty-five cents. The monetary part of the admission fee is for the defraying of expenses, which, however, will not be large, and the rest of the money will go to purchase technical books for the war libraries. This is an excellent opportunity for everyone to help in the drive.

Time to do a good work for the soldiers and sailors.

Salts in Hot Water Clears Pimply Skin

Says we must make kidneys clean the blood, and pimples disappear.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter the poisons from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The purest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity thus causing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and does not irritate the bowels. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear. It cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys.
