
BOUGHT THRIFT STAMPS.

Young People of Moorhead Found Valuable Papers.

Norman Wright and May Borgen Tuesday afternoon found a package of valuable papers hidden under the grating of one of the basement windows of the Wright & Son's awning factory, Moorhead. The papers were lost several weeks ago by Herman Wilk, and the young people "split" the $25 reward and invested the money in thrift stamps.
