

Graduates of Lincoln High School, Assembled Yesterday at Entrance to Hibbing Building.

HIBBINGITES END ACADEMIC STUDIES; RECEIVE SHEEPSKINS

Diplomas Awarded to Fifty Who Have Creditably Completed Four-Year Course, Together With Graduates of Junior College Department.

HIBBING, June 13.—Fifty students were graduated from the Lincoln high school tonight. On the platform with the seniors were eight seniors from the junior college department in cap and gown. The exercises took place in the high school auditorium. Patriotic songs and the national airs of France and Italy were sung.

An oration by Elmer Eck was well delivered. Songs, "Valentine's Farewell" from Faust, and "The Stormy Evening" were sung by the entire class. Howard Niemi sang "Ashes of Roses" and "Requiem"

"Hail, All Hail" sung by the boys of the class, was followed by "And the Smoke Rose Slowly," from the "Peace Pipe" sung by the girls of the class. "To the Hermit Thrush" was sung by the senior double quartet.

The commencement address was delivered by Dr. Lotus D. Coffman, dean of the college of education of the University of Minnesota. The presentation of diplomas was then made by Dr. Coffman.

Those receiving diplomas from the high school were Viola Ankenbrand, Delena Balduc, Jack Beamish, Barbara Bretto, Lester Cash, Elsie Carlson, Mae Colmer, Dorothy Cohen, Ora Congdon, Gordon Crawle, Amelia Currie, Hubert Dear, Elmer Eck, Tony Erickson, Eva Friday, Margaret Grebenz, Edna Gleason, Jack Gulaa, Mae Hall, Ellen Jarpe, Oscar Johnson, Lillian Lenberg, Grace McWhinney, Margaret McHardy, Howard McComber, Howard Niemi, Edward Oja, Virginia Purcell, Margaret Remington, Ruth Bogalsky, Ensil Sandberg, Arthur Sabatini, Vyra Schwartz, Margaret Shelko, Anthony Strajan, John Tahija, Ina Torma, Floyd Wherland, Elsie Benesovitz, Elizabeth Falbo, Agnes Gustafson, Loretta Hazelcamp, Marie Kraemer, Blanche McCully, Edith Mickola, Fanny Niemi, Cora Wassberg, John Wickman, Stanley Zouchowski, and Aune Laulay.

Recipients of diplomas in the junior college department were Linnea Idstrom, Virginia Smith, Alice Hoskins, Pearl Waymire, Annette Balduc, Gladys Moran, Helen Carlson, and John Aura. Three graduates received their diplomas two weeks ago, when they left for Jefferson Barracks to train for the army. They are Norman Imbertson, Charles Milkes and Milo Schrun.