

ZIONISTS WILL ELECT OFFICERS

Program and Report on Sale of Shekels Will be Features of Meeting Tonight.

Agudath Zionist society will elect officers at its meeting in the Tower hall tonight which will be followed by the reading of papers pertinent to the organization. A report of the sale of shekels by a committee of workers will also be made at this meeting.

A paper on the "New District Organization of Zionist societies" will be read by Miss Edith Lasky. This is to be one of the prominent features at the national federation of American Zionist societies at Pittsburgh June 23. Others who will take part in the program are Miss Sarah Cohen who will read an article on Zionist Current Events and Harry Cohen will furnish a number of violin solos accompanied by Miss Mollie Handlovsky.

The shekel campaign will be carried on today by a committee of workers who will visit every Jewish home in the city in an effort to dispose of 300 shekels, the quota allotted to Superior. By buying one of the shekels whether a member or not, the purchaser becomes a member of the International Zionist organization.

Members of the working team comprise Chas. Aronovitz, Isadore Cohen, Robert Cohen, Roy Edelstein, N. Borvotsky, G. Golberg, M. Greenberg, Herman Aronsohn, Lewis Lasky, Edwin Lasky, Ed. Lurye, Alex. Shapiro and Casel Marcus.
