

TO HOLD FUNERAL OF SAM LIPPMAN AT VIRGINIA TODAY

VIRGINIA, Jan. 26.—The funeral of Sam Lippman, Virginia merchant, will be held here tomorrow at the B'nai Abraham synagogue where the ceremonies will be conducted by Rabbi Pfeiffer of Eveleth, following which the body will be taken to Duluth for burial in the Jewish cemetery. Friends and members of the family will accompany the body.

Max Lewis, Julius Shanedling, Sam Mavetz, Adolph Keller, Dr. C. E. Goodman and Maurice Shanedling will be the active pallbearers, the honorary bearers being A. Sachs of Ebbing, Harry Ellis of Eveleth, Maurice Peck of Chisholm, Irwin Well of Milwaukee and M. B. Booth and Harry Shanedling of Virginia.

Misses Claire and Frances Lippman, daughters, arrived here last night from Chicago, where they attend the university. Joseph, a son, who is a student at the Columbia university, New York city, will arrive in Duluth tomorrow to attend the rites at the cemetery.
