

ish rye bread, pop and ices. Mrs. Harry Brooks was kind enough to make "shtrudel" for a crowd of about 300. It really was a treat for the boys so far away from home. The crowd disbanded at 12 P. M. sharp, a good Jazz band furnished the music for the evening.

Membership Campaign.

As one of the features of the campaign, a Girls' Mass Meeting is scheduled for Wednesday evening, December 18th, at the Talmud Torah Auditorium. A fine program is arranged which consists of the following speakers: Mrs. E. H. Erb, who returned some time ago from service with the Red Cross in France, Miss Julia Felsenthal and Mrs. Arthur Brin. Miss Florence Schulman will give a reading, and Miss Halliday of the Girls' Liberty League will lead the crowd in Community Sing. Thursday evening, December 19th, under the auspices of the Senior Y. W. H. A., a mass meeting for the Junior Y. W. H. A. will be held for all girls interested between the ages of 15 and 18 years. A good program has been arranged.

The Advisory and Executive Boards of the Y. W. H. A. will receive at the Reception to be held in honor of the new members at the Talmud Torah Sunday afternoon, December 22nd. The Membership Committee is arranging a good musical program, and a good time is assured. All members of the club, old as well as new, are cordially invited.

Y. W. H. A. Dance.

Just a word. Wednesday evening, December 25th, the Y. W. H. A. will give a dance at the Talmud Torah. A good Jazz Band will furnish the music for the evening. Tickets may be had from any of the members.

B. B. B.

Ladies' Auxiliary of the Talmud Torah.

The next two meetings of the Tuesday evening dancing class will be postponed to the following Thursday, December the Twenty-sixth, and January the Second.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will give a dancing party on New Year's Eve at the Talmud Torah Auditorium.

The Sunday evening dances have been resumed with Mrs. J. Confeld as chairman of the committee.

The Council of Jewish Women. Notes.

The Junior Auxiliary of the Council of Jewish Women elected its officers at a meeting on Sunday last at the Temple House. The following were chosen: President, Miss Florence Goldberg; first vice president, Miss Jennie Feinberg; second vice president, Miss Dora Kohen; recording secretary, Miss Marguerite Kahn; corresponding secretary, Miss Cecelia Marienhoff; treasurer, Miss Emily Roberts.

The Executive Committee of the Council met at the Temple House on Monday last.

The Child Study Class of the Council will meet as usual on Friday, December the Twentieth, at 2:30 o'clock at the Temple House.

The Study Circle of the Council will meet on Tuesday, January the Seventh, at the home of Mrs. Henry Weiskopf, 2440 Bryant Avenue South.

Temple Auxiliary Bazaar.

A bridge party and bazaar was held at the Temple House on Tuesday last under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Temple. Mrs. Joe Robitshek was in charge of the arrangements. The affair was well attended.

DECEASED.

Miriam Levine Shapiro.

Mrs. Leo Shapiro, 2659 Lake of the Isles Boulevard, passed away on Monday last, after an attack of influenza followed by pneumonia. She was twenty-eight years of age, and is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Levine of Duluth, her two sisters, Mrs. Maurice Rapoport, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. David Rapoport of New York, a brother, Victor Levine, now with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, her husband, and her three children, Leo, Jr., Elizabeth and the newly born infant, who arrived on Thursday, December the Twelfth. The body was taken to her former home in Duluth for burial.

A REAL TREAT.

If you want to give your sweetheart or family a real treat—take them to the New Garrick next week, to see Cecil B. De Mille's modern version of the Squaw Man. To make it a special attraction, Manager Chas. Branham will have Al Howard sing "In My Little Birch Canoe," a song hit. The New Garrick orchestra will play, with Julius K. Johnson at the piano.

The New Garrick is a well ventilated pleasant place to spend a few hours. Let's not miss it.

MONEY RAISED FOR ORPHAN HOME.

At the Brith Mohel of the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Budd, 918 Fremont Avenue North, Mrs. Joe Bassin, treasurer of the Jewish Society for Homeless Children, made an appeal for funds. In response twenty-seven dollars was raised by the assembled guests.

BNAI BRITH ELECTIONS.

Fargo.

The John Hay Lodge of the I. O. B. B. of Fargo, North Dakota, held election of officers at its last meeting. The following were chosen: President, Harry Lashkowitz; vice president, Max Goldberg; secretary, Jake Goldberg; treasurer, Saul Simon; trustee, Matt Siegel; warden, Abe Gilles; guardian, Nathan Brandeis; delegate to district convention, Alex Stern.

Those who advertise in our columns are our mutual friends. Patronize them.

Make Your New Year's Eve Reservations Now $1.00 Cover

GARGOYLE CAFE

AND DELICATESSEN

Dancing Every Evening

Wilmac Building

719 Nicollet Ave.

Main 6812

Peoples Reliable Dye House (Incorporated)

2951 Lyndale Avenue South EXPERT CLEANERS AND DYERS

We Call Everywhere.

—Phones—

South 284 Auto 51100

FURS

AND

FUR COATS

Every Fur marked at greatly reduced prices.

BENJ. LIGHT & CO.

522 NICOLLET

A Wise Woman

will invest in a

WEISMAN FUR COAT

Coatee or Wrap of any Kind

Prices now are lower than they will be later in the season.

We manufacture the furs we sell, and you get the highest quality at the lowest possible price.

WILLIAM WEISMAN

508 Nicollet Ave.

The Most Convenient Safe Deposit Vault IS IN THE MIDLAND NATIONAL BANK 2nd Avenue So. and 4th Street