

Sophomores Entertain At High School Tonight

Tonight will be the Central high sophomores' turn at a "get together." The sophomores will hold their annual class party this evening in the halls of the school and it is expected that nearly the whole class will turn out to their last social gathering before their advent into the third year as juniors. Arrangements for the party and program have been made by Theodora Cook and Loretta Cadarette chairmen of the respective committees. Following the dinner to be served at the boys department Y. M. C. A., the revelers will adjourn to the high school building for the vaudeville program and dance.

Toasts to be given follow: "The Girls," Clyde Peterson; "The Boys," Sylvia Josephs; "The Faculty," Ruth Miller; "Class Activities," Grace McDonald; short toasts by Miss Effie White, class adviser, and Principal Leonard Young. The following program has been arranged following the dinner: "Opera Syncopa" with a cast comprising Theodore Cook, John Bennet, Jack Coran, Kendall McClure, and Reinhard Bergeson; interpretative dance, Lucile Middlecoff; vocal solo, Katherine Hall; selections by the sophomore ukulele "band."

Music for the dancing will be furnished by Esther Gomberg's orchestra.
