

RED CROSS DRIVE GAINS KEEN SUPPORT FROM YOUNG FOLK

Cloquet and Chisholm People Entertained by Efforts of Sons and Daughters at Successful Benefit.

CLOQUET, May 21.—“The Court of King Cole,” a musical extravaganza, was given tonight at the Grand theater for the benefit of the Red Cross war fund drive in progress in Cloquet. Miss Harriet Purdy Smith directed the production. The following took part: as members of the cast of characters:

Mary O'Brien, Helen McNair, Mrs. F. Wilhelm, Miriam Hall, Corinne Stapleton, Ruth Dixon, Esther Elm, Isabel McNeir, Stella Summerfield, Elsie Swanson, Margaret Dreschler, Ruth Fhesbein, Justin McGough, John Boulson, Harvey Koch, Sylvester Brisette, T. P. Russell, George Erickson, Lyman Sheean, Erwin Broken, Norman Johnson, Fred Swanson, George McCoubrey, Vernon McClaskey, Stanley Watkins, Edwin Coy, Richard Colburn, William McNair Jr., Marcia Case.

In the choruses were the following:
Florence Lindgren, Edna Russell, Beatrice Johnson, Martha B. Clark, Ellen Boquist, Dorothy Hornby, Mrs. J. O'Brien, Amy Johnson, Cora Thibault, Lulu Stapleton, Kathryn Elfes, Katharine Schlink, Elsie Colburn, Helen Brownell, Belle Stapleton, Alice O'Brien, Elizabeth Dixon, Gladys Campbell, Daisy Henderson, Charlotte Poquette, Marjorie Dixon, Rebecca Collins, Mary Olesen, Barbara Hornby, Geraldine Sturdevant, Theresa MacIntyre, Margaret Ackerman, Frank Ervin, Jeffrey Lightfoot, John O'Brien, John Herdy, Erwin Rinkin, Richard Cochran, Leonard Summerfield, Earl Enochard, Reynolds Johnson, Louis Broadbaldt, Howard Jensen, Carl Peterson, Harvey Hebert, Allen Frehman, George Hassel and Roy Johnson.