

FATHER OF UNION PRINTER DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Louis Cohen, aged 57, died last Friday at his home, 1115 East Third street, of pneumonia. He had resided in Duluth for more than 50 years, and was well known, especially among the Jewish people.

Mr. Cohen is survived by his widow and two sons, Maurice and Henry S., both of Duluth, and six daughters, Mrs. Louis Shenowsky, Mrs. M. Steiner, Eva, Mattie and Viola Cohen, all of Duluth, and Mrs. J. Bernstein of Richmond, Wis.

Maurice Cohen is a member of Duluth Typographical union No. 136.

The funeral was held Sunday, with interment in the Jewish cemetery.
