

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1918 ARE GRADUATED

Exercises Held at Central Auditorium—192 Were Given Diplomas by Principal Leonard Young.

Commencement exercises of the Central high graduating class of 1918 were held in the auditorium of the school last evening. Bedecked in full cap and gown regalia the seniors occupied the stage and an improvised addition necessitated to hold the 192 graduates. Fragrant flower blooms extended along the whole fore of the platform forming a beautiful half screen before the impressive background of similarly-attired students of the departing class.

The exercises were of the simplest nature, comprising brief addresses and musical numbers. Fine order marked the event of the presentation of diplomas, a special feature of which was an announcement by Principal Young relative to the five members of the graduating class who left before commencement to enter into Uncle Sam's service, and who will nevertheless receive their sheepskins. The boys are: William P. Hammel, Julian J. Idzorek, Hamilton H. Phelps, Albert S. Rathbun and Harry A. Segal.

The commencement program of last evening follows: Song, "Discovery" Grieg; class of 1918—Invocation, Rev. Charles N. Pace; "Unto the Least of These," Elsa Zachow; "The War and Agriculture," Charles Hathaway, piano solo, "Valse Lente," (Dolmetsch) Violet Smith; "Reconstruction of Men," Eleanor Keyes; "The Play of the Nation," Agnes Ewell; song, "Land of Mine," (MacDermid) class of 1918; "An Ounce of Prevention," LeRoy Grettum; song, "Alma Mater," (Custance), class of 1918; address, Principal Young; presentation of class and awarding of diplomas, Supt.
