

SCHOOL CHILDREN SHOW A LIVELY INTEREST IN STAMPS

Boost Thrift "Stickers" As a Final Windup of Efforts of School Year.

Prior to the closing of school for the summer vacations Duluth school children are evincing a lively interest in boosting the sale of war saving and thrift stamps. Many of them are working diligently obtaining customers and incidentally earning for themselves commissions in Uncle Sam's thrift army. Washington Junior high school boasts of 48 live wires who are daily bringing in signed postcard orders for thrift stamps. Three of these are colonels.

The following are the students of the grade schools who have earned commissions:

Ely school: Captain, James Barnes; first lieutenants, Kathryn Young and John Dix.

Denfeld high school: Major, Wesley Christianson; captains, Mildred Anderson, Edell Nicolaysen, Henrietta Murphy; first lieutenant, Hazel Hammer; second lieutenants, Dorothy Guildner, Clarence Anderson, Jean Ferguson and Rose Kopp.

Washington Junior high school: First lieutenants—Wallace Dutcher, Leah Kenigsberg, Leona Kusmerek, Floyd Bjorkman, Eleanor McKibbin, Marion Knight and Burton Stone.

Second-lieutenants—Clarence Dodge, Dorothy Hanna, George Dinham, Lena Cohen, Marvin Laskowitz, Julia Waldo, Thelma Hoff, Darrel Swenson, Roy Karon, Morris Cohen, Elizabeth Hanson, Pearl Codel, Freda Carlson, Susie Mindestrom, Maurine Bredeson, Grace Wing, Erling Sande, Ben Cheszen, Margaret Wares, Benjamin Hagen and Roy Olson.

Captains—Anna Nelson, Evelyn Coe, Laura Nielson, Josephine Gude, Irving Josephs, Norman Meyers, Sam Dan-elki, Mary Little and Sam Cohen.

Majors—Clarence Thatcher, Vernon Wendlandt, Phillip Abalon, Bessie Rosenbergs, Alice Peterson, Mary Little and Sam Cohen.

Colonels—Marvin Sukov, Dorsen Mountford and Mary Little.