

JEW'S OF CHISHOLM, HIBBING ELECT HEADS, TALK OF PLANS

HIBBING, July 6.—At a meeting today of the Jewish organization, B'nai Brith, which embraces the Jewish residents of Hibbing and Chisholm, officers for the new year were elected. Simon Sapero of Chisholm was elected president to succeed Samuel Goldenberg of this village. Charles Hallock of Hibbing was chosen vice-president succeeding Simon Sapero. Isaac Lewis of Chisholm was elected treasurer, and Samuel Lewis, also of Chisholm, secretary. The latter succeed respectively Charles Hallock and Lewis Nides of Hibbing.

It is planned to have the annual picnic of this organization at Little Swan lake. The committee consisting of Charles Hallock, Benjamin Stone, and B. J. Medalie of Buhl, will meet Sunday to perfect arrangements.

The dedication of a service flag was also planned at the meeting. Five men are in the service, Maurice Rutstein, Harry Margullis of Hibbing, Harry Goldenberg and Samuel Duho of Chisholm, and Maurice Rosenberg of Hibbing.
