

WEDNESDAY IS DAY FAVORED BY JUNE BRIDES

Three Large Weddings Celebrated in Duluth Yesterday.

Amidst a spring garden effect of Mex. palms and peonies the marriage of Miss Rae Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Miller of Jefferson street, and J. D. Ginsberg of Des Moines took place at Forrester's hall at 5 p. m. yesterday. Little Miss Esther Goldish of St. Paul was the ringbearer and carried lilies of the valley with the ring concealed in one of the lilies. Rabbi Teplitz officiated.

The bride was attractively gowned in white satin caught up in a drape with bride's roses and lilies of the valley. She wore the conventional veil made in a cap effect outlined with more of the same flowers. The bridesmaids carried pink roses.

Miss Sadie Miller, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, wore blue satin. Miss Frieda Shapiro of St. Paul and Miss Sarah Goldish were the bridesmaids. Miss Goldish wearing pink satin and Miss Shapiro embroidered pink corsette. Miss Alice Goldish, dressed in fluffy net over pink, was the flower girl. The groom's attendants were Herman Ginsberg, Benjamin B. Miller and Abraham Miller.

Dinner was served to 100 guests at the close of the ceremony and a reception was held later. Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. Goldish, Misses Esther and M'fred Goldish, Miss Frieda Shapiro, of St. Paul; Misses Zelda and Rose Goldish of Marietta, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. S. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. I. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Ginsberg, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ginsberg, Mr. Herman Ginsberg, Mrs. J. Levitt, Ellis I. Levitt and Miss Rose Robinson of Des Moines.

Mr. and Mrs. Ginsberg will leave today for an extended western trip and will spend three months in California. They will make their home in Duluth this winter.

The wedding of Ina Belle Johnston of Appleton, Wis., and Chesterelden Bunn of Morgan Park took place at noon yesterday at the residence of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bunn, 206 North Third street, Morgan Park. Rev. J. W. Kuyper read the services in the presence of relatives. The bride wore white embroidered crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of pink and white bride's roses.

The rooms were beautifully decorated in a prevailing color scheme of rose and white. After a luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Bunn left on an extended trip.

They will be at home at 206 North Third street, Morgan Park, after Aug. 1.

Palms and tall cathedral candles, pink and white peonies and other flowers formed an attractive setting for the marriage of Miss Mary Frances Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hubbard, 12 West fourth street, and Walter P. LaFex of this city, which was solemnized yesterday morning at the Sacred Heart cathedral in the presence of a large number of guests. Rev. W. J. Powers read the service at 9 o'clock. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Theresa Lynn played the nuptial music, and John Belanger sang the mass music.

The bride wore white georgette crepe over satin, with pearl trimmings, her long veil being caught in place with sprays of lilies of the valley. She carried a shower arrangement of bride roses and lilies of the valley and tiny American flags. Mrs. L. W. Anderson was matron of honor, wearing a gown fashioned of pink georgette crepe over satin, with a pink sash and a white hat trimmed with a big white ostrich plume. Miss Emma Marie Hartman, the bridesmaid, was gowned in white net over pale blue satin, and wore a white mauline hat. Both attendants carried arm bouquets of pink and white peonies. Little Miss Hazel Roy in a dainty white frock, carried flowers in a pretty basket. The bridegroom was attended by Frank Arseneau, returned sailor, and Lee Hubbard, returned soldier, who is the bride's brother. Ralph King and Arthur Bailey, returned soldier and sailor, also in uniforms, acted as ushers.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, for immediate relatives and a few intimate friends, and a reception in the evening was attended by about 100 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. LaFex left last night for a wedding trip, and will be at home in Duluth upon their return. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. R. Reid of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. P. Williams and daughter, Katherine, of Iron River, Wis.
