

MOSES W. BEARMAN
PIONEER SETTLER DIES.

Moses W. Bearman, resident of Minneapolis over thirty-five years, who had been active in the institutional life of the city, died at the residence, 819 Eighth Street South, early Thursday morning, June 26. Funeral services were held from the home and the Adath Yeshurun synagogue with Rabbi S. M. Silber and Rabbi C. David Matt officiating. Interment was held at the O. B. A. cemetery. Surviving him besides his widow are four sons and three daughters: Abe N., Louis, Arthur S., and Harry T., and Mrs. D. K. Goldblum and Mrs. Sigmund Harris of this city, and Mrs. Philip Greenberg of St. Paul.

Mr. Bearman is mourned by a large circle of friends who during the many years they knew him learned to appreciate his qualities of heart and mind. His was a life, full in years and happy in the manly part his children played in bearing their responsibility as honored members of the community. Few Jews of the old generation are privileged to see their children in this land doing so much for the cause of Jewish education and advancement. It was this that made the last years of Moses W. Bearman mellow and happy. May he rest in peace.
