

Holly and Avon streets, and all interested Jewish girls and young women of the city are invited to attend.

HYMAN WEINSTEIN TO GIVE RECITAL.

Under the auspices of the St. Paul Council of Jewish Women, which has interested itself in the future of Hyman Weinstein, young St. Paul violin prodigy, who is a pupil of George Klass, violinist with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, a recital will be given by young Weinstein at the Temple, on Tuesday evening, November 25, at 8:15 P. M. He will be assisted at the piano by Mrs. Catherine Hoffman, who has assisted many of the celebrities who have appeared in St. Paul and other cities.

HADASSAH NOTES.

Weekly sewing meetings under the auspices of the St. Paul Chapter of Hadassah have been resumed, at the Temple of Aaron, Ashland and Grotto streets. The articles to be made up are very simple, and persons with or without sewing experience can easily do the work, most of the articles being for infants' wear. Last year, hundreds of completed articles were sent away by the local organization, for children and women in Palestine, and it is hoped that this year the response will be much greater. Sewing circles will meet weekly on Tuesdays and Wednesdays at the Temple Aaron, from ten o'clock to four.

Sewing circles for the same purpose will meet weekly at the Neighborhood House on the West Side also, under the direction of Mrs. Ida B. Davis. The sewing work is under the general supervision of Mrs. Amalia Weiller.

For those who prefer to knit for the Palestinians, a call has come for knitted sweaters and caps for children. Mrs. Leon Solomon, 2109 Lincoln avenue, Midway 8870, is in charge of the knitting work, will give directions and furnish materials, and if necessary will teach those desiring to learn how to knit the articles.

Plans for the New Year's Eve dance, the annual affair of Hadassah, are being made by the committee in charge. The proceeds will go largely for the sewing work, and other Zionist or Palestinian needs.

TEMPLE AARON NOTES.

"Job vs. The Undying Fire" will be the topic of the lecture by Rabbi P. Kleinman at the services this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. A special musical program will be given by the Temple choir.

The committee in charge of the Annual Ball to be given at the Masonic Temple on Thanksgiving Eve (Wednesday, November 26) is happy to announce that all arrangements are now completed to make this affair a social success. The demand for tickets is so great that a record breaking attendance is awaited.

At the Leaders' Training group last Wednesday evening, Rabbi C. David Matt of Minneapolis, spoke on "Jeremiah and Ezekiel," being the second lecture of the course on Jewish Prophecy, the first having been given by Rabbi Kleinman on "Prophetism and Its Champions." The week previous Mr. Harry

W. Davis gave an instructive report on "The Pittsburgh Platform."

"Altneuland" is the name of a Judean club of girls between the ages of 12 to 14 meeting at 3 o'clock every Sunday afternoon at the Temple of Aaron under the leadership of Miss Anna Kleinman. The officers are: President, Ruby Lieberman; vice president, Pearl Alschuler; treasurer, Mollie Schoenberg; secretary, Sylvia Coddon. A very spirited debate on "Resolved that American Jews are in Greater Need of Zionism than Those of Russia," resulted in the decision going to the affirmative side which was upheld by Mildred Goldberg and Ruby Lieberman. The negative was upheld by Sylvia Coddon and Pearl Alschuler.

Bar Mitzvah.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Zneimer, 759 Selby avenue, announce the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Sidney, to take place on Saturday, November 22, at 9 a. m. at the Temple Aaron.

ST. PAUL MEMBERS OF JEWISH SHELTERING HOME TO MEET.

A very important meeting of all St. Paul members of the Sheltering Home for Jewish Children of Minneapolis will be held on Sunday afternoon, November 23, at 2:30 o'clock sharp at the Temple of Aaron. It is hoped that all St. Paul people interested in this institution will attend this meeting.

POUND PARTY FOR SHELTERING HOME.

St. Paul residents wishing to make contributions to the Pound Party for the benefit of the children at the Jewish Sheltering Home are asked to kindly send their contributions to Mrs. Sol Fligelman, 1751 Portland avenue, not later than Wednesday, November 26. Each package must bear the name of the contributor.

COMMUNITY HANUKAH CELEBRATION IN ST. PAUL.

A community Hanukah celebration will be held at the Shubert theatre, which has been loaned for Monday afternoon, December 22, for the Jewish children in all parts of the city. The program for the celebration is being prepared by the various Judean clubs, conducted in different sections of the city. The financial end of the celebration is in the hands of a committee of women, who have volunteered their services to look after the securing of candies, souvenirs and other goodies for the children. Any party desiring to assist financially or otherwise may do so by sending check or calling Mrs. L. Salet, 1134 Summit avenue.

It now appears that Lord Swaythling, eldest son of the great orthodox Jew who began life as plain Samuel Montagu, is dwelling in our midst for the purpose of introducing his eldest son to the environs of Harvard University. The new Harvard student will in the natural course of events, if his life is spared, become the third Lord Swaythling and will have enjoyed the advantage of an education at an American university instead of the usual Oxford or Cambridge small-reading, large-sporting course. Lord Swaythling was wise in his action.—Hebrew Standard.
