

ASKS DISTRIBUTION OF $500 AWARD IN DEATH OF BROTHER

Distribution of $500 obtained from the Barnett & Record company on a death claim growing out of the drowning of Samuel Fagel in Duluth-Superior harbor on Feb. 21, is asked of district court in a petition filed by J. S. Fagel, brother of the deceased.

Samuel Fagel was drowned when a gasoline boat which he was aboard collided with a scow owned by the Barnett & Record company. A private settlement was reached after a suit had been started against the company.
