

WAR MOTHERS PRESIDENT'S HONOR GUESTS

Mrs. J. R. McGiffert Is Hostess at Delightful Affair

The "War Mothers" were guests of honor at a delightful tea given yesterday by President Mrs. J. R. McGiffert at her home, 2324 East Fifth street. The affair was entirely informal and 90 mothers of the boys took this opportunity to become better acquainted with one another. As the one general theme of conversation was "my boy," of course everyone had an unusually enjoyable afternoon. Pink tulips and ferns effectively decorated the dining room.

Mrs. J. A. Watterworth poured and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Whitney Wall, Mrs. Walter B. Butchart, Mrs. H. S. Clark, Mrs. Gordon Butler and Miss Margaret McGiffert.

Maccabees Honor Mrs. Fix Former Captain

Bi-monthly meeting of Duluth Review No. 1. Woman's Benefit association of Maccabees, was held last night in Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue North, with a large attendance. Mrs. D. A. Maser, commander, presided. A feature of interest was the presentation to Mrs. Laura Fix, former captain of the guards, of a handsome gift in appreciation of her work and the esteem in which she is held by the members, the presentation being made in behalf of the review, by the commander, Mrs. Maser. Mrs. Fix, in addition to serving a captain of the guards for a number of years, has served in other capacities including that of commander. She is also a member of the executive board in charge of the association hospital service in the city.

Applications for membership were received at the meeting, and initiation of candidates was a feature. The review is planning another card party in the near future.

Rebekahs Prepare for District Convention

Excelsior Rebekah lodge No. 59 is making preliminary preparations for the annual district convention of Rebekahs which will be held Wednesday, March 26, in Odd Fellows' temple, North Central avenue, and at which the local lodge will be host. Several state officers are expected to be present at the convention, also the district president, Mrs. H. Ganley, and Mrs. Charles E. Mathews, past district president of West Duluth. Mrs. Mathews requests that all members of the degree staff meet with her Monday night in Odd Fellows' temple, to practice for the part the staff will take at the meeting.

Miss Larrive Given Miscellaneous Shower

Miss Ruth Little, 624 North Fifty-sixth avenue East, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday night, in compliment to Miss Elsie M. Larrive, bride-to-be. Hearts and cupids were strung about the room, and favors and place cards in accordance with the Washington motif gave an added touch of color. The guests were Mrs. A. Racette, Mrs. M. E. Skomars, Mrs. Frank Ehr, Mrs. A. Lyons, Mrs. J. Ritchie, Mrs. J. D. Larrive, Mrs. J. J. Maleski, Mrs. George Little, Miss Elizabeth McNichol, Miss Stella Rice, Miss Ruth Millen, Miss Olene Michaud, Miss Alice Kringel and Miss Ethelya Aman.

Monthly meeting of the Mothers' club of the Longfellow school was held yesterday afternoon. The program included a talk by Miss Keator, superintendent of the Opportunity school; folk dances by Room 7; patriotic songs by Room 2; piano solo, Miss Naomi Nicolayson; vocal solo, Harold Lindman, and piano solo by Miss Mabel Anderson. Mrs. C. I. Towner was chairman of the program committee, other members on the committee being Mrs. William Ritchie, Mrs. Swayze and Mrs. Kimball.

Longfellow school went 100 per cent in the junior Red Cross drive, according to a report given out by the principal, Mr. Anderson. With an enrollment of 440 pupils, the contributions amounted to $110.

"No ice cream, candy or gum for me this week." "Mama, if I do dishes every night this week, will be able to earn a quarter to enroll in the Junior Red Cross?"

These are some of the statements being heard continuously in Duluth homes this week, for little Duluthians are trying to save and help in the work of the Junior Red Cross campaign now being carried on. To date the following schools have reported 100 per cent enrollments: Stowe, sending $37; Cobb, giving $40.25; Longfellow reporting $40.25 and Franklin, donating $126.25.

Leut. S. T. Harrison and mother, Mrs. S. T. Harrison of Washington, D. C., are the guests of Joseph G. Harrison of Irving Place. Lieutenant Harrison expects to leave for Chicago the first of March.

Mrs. Samuel Lavick, 4806 West Sixth street, entertained a few friends at cards Tuesday afternoon. Five hundred was played, and favors were won by Mrs. C. Lavick and Mrs. P. Bennett.

One hundred guests attended the dancing party last night at the Moran Park club, for members and their ladies. Helmer's orchestra played a program of 16 numbers.
