

THIEVES STEAL CLOTHING; HIBBING MAN VICTIM

HIBBING, Feb. 26.—Thieves entering the apartments over the former Flower building on Cedar street last night and stole clothes valued at over $100 belonging to Julius Edelstein, owner of the Lyric theater.

The robbery was reported to the police this morning.

The police have succeeded in breaking up a gang of young men who have been committing petty thievery about the city the past few months. Last night's robbery is thought by the police to be the beginning of another "wave."
