

SEVEN DULUTH VETERANS IN NEW YORK, SEE THE SIGHTS

Among the service men from Duluth who last registered at the Minnesota state desk in the Hall of States of the New York War Camp Community service were George E. Wilson, William Summerfield, Leander M. Goss, William J. McLeod, C. H. Friederichsen, F. W. Burns and William A. Kerr.

The Hall of States is known as the "Hospitality Center in New York." Committees of "home folks" from each state are there to welcome the service men when they disembark and get uptown to "see the sights."
