

Lowell Pupils Prepare Memorial Program

The pupils of the Lowell school will give the following program this afternoon and will repeat it tomorrow afternoon, in the assembly of the school.

"Clysmic March," orchestra; song, "Battle Hymn of Republic," audience; invocation, Rev. A. H. Mutchler; folk dances, "Hickory Dickory Dock," "Kinderpolka," first grade pupils; calisthenics, "fourth grade pupils; folk dances, "Merry Go Round;" "Swedish Klappdans," "Swiss May Dance," second and third grade pupils; rhythmic exercises, kindergarten; songs, "Gypsy Song," "Ben-demeer's Stream," eighth grade pupils; flag drill, fifth grade pupils; folk dances, "Hopp Morr Annika," "Bleking," "Ace of Diamonds," "Captain Jinks," third and fourth grade pupils; "Evergreen Schottische," orchestra; talk, "Education After the War," Dr. K. J. Hoke; May pole dance, girls from upper grades; flag salute, school.

Mrs. Mark Baldwin, East Fifth street, left Monday night for Summit, N. J., where she will attend the graduation exercises at Kent Place school. Her daughter, Miss Clara Elizabeth Baldwin, is one of this year's graduates. Later Mrs. Baldwin and her daughter will visit New York before returning home.

The piano and voice pupils of Mrs. Charles Eliasson gave an interesting program at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Algotson Sunday afternoon. Those taking part were Mrs. M. F. Lucas, Gladys Peterson, Constance Eaton, Violet Jentoft, Helen Algotson, Rose Azine, Evelyn Algotson, Alice Anderson, Elizabeth Golcz, Virginia Anderson, Mildred Hanson, Lillie Jentoft, Victoria Johnson, Thelma Nyquist, Shirley Welshinger, Helen Pearson, Svea Gafvert, Eva Pearson, Jenny Golz and Ruth Shenowsky.