

CHISHOLM CLASS TO PRESENT 'FANNY AND SERVANT PROBLEM'

ARNEY WALL.

CHISHOLM, May 30.—The English idea of the servants' place in the household will be shown in the comedy, "Fanny and the Servant Problem," to be presented at the high school auditorium Friday night, June 6.

An English lord marries a music hall singer, Fanny, whose part in the play is portrayed by Miss Rita Lewis, in defiance of the unwritten law of class distinction. Upon arrival at her new home, Fanny finds that her servants are also her kinsmen and headed by the butler, Bennett, whose role is taken by Arney Wall, they provide some awkward and laughable situations.

MISS RETA LEWIS.

One of the features of the play will be the chorus. Members of the senior class are participating in the staging of the comedy.
