JOINT GRADUATION EXERCISES HELD

Superior and Nelson Dewey
High Schools Present
Programs.

Joint graduation exercises for graduates of Superior and Nelson-Dewey high schools were held at the Superior high school auditorium last night. Diplomas were presented by W. J. Whipple, president of the school board.

"Superior's Part in the War," was the subject of the salutatory address by Olga Carlson of the Nelson-Dewey school. "Government Ownership of Railroads" was discussed by Raymond McDonald of Superior high school. Morris Karon, who gave an oration, "The Russian Crisis," and Margaret Mitchell, who gave "The Call to Service," were Superior high school students. James Elliot of Nelson-Dewey school, gave "The Freedom of the Seas." Music was given by the orchestras and glee clubs of both schools. Miss Jennie Weinstein played a violin solo. The benediction was given by Father M. W. Ross.
