

MARRIAGE RITES ARE IMPRESSIVE

Miss Sarah Cohen Becomes Bride of St. Paul Man at Superior.

Color, music and lavish floral decorations formed the setting for a wedding ceremony at 5 p. m. yesterday at Odd Fellows hall for Miss Sara Cohen of Superior and Emmanuel Coddin of St. Paul. Immediately after the service the wedding dinner was served to 150 guests and dancing continued until midnight.

The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Chazin. The groom, attended by Nathan Coddin and Tony Gotkin of St. Paul and Philip Litman of Superior, led the procession. Mr. and Mrs. I. Averbrook and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coddin followed as attendants. Miss Betty Cohen in a draped gown of pale blue satin, wearing a head dress of chiffon, flowers and ribbon, and carrying a bouquet was maid of honor. Bridesmaids, who wore pink and white, were Roselin Cohen and Susan Fitmerman of Superior and Leona Cohen of Duluth. The flower girls were Florence Lieberman and Fernie Coddin of St. Paul, while Janice Averbrook scattered rose petals along the aisle. The bride in white georgette with filmy veil quaintly draped with tiny blossoms, was accompanied to the altar by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cohen.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. Coddin, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Coddin, Mr. and Mrs. I. Lieberman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coddin, Misses Mildred and Sylvia Coddin, Miss Ruth and Norton Lieberman and Mrs. N. Coddin of St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. H. Miller, Mrs. M. Schweltzer, Miss Ella Bronstein, Samuel Abraham and David Fleterman, Harry Bronstein and Ralph Dubrun of Minneapolis.
