

B'NAI B'RITH HAS SUPERIOR LODGE

Members Choose Dr. L. M. Harris as First President of New Organization.

Dr. L. M. Harris was unanimously elected president of the B'nai B'rith, a new organization among Superior Jews. The lodge, which is known as Lodge Theodore Roosevelt, No. 844, has elected other officers as follows: Aaron Siegel, vice president; Robert Jacobs, treasurer; Isadore Cohen, monitor; S. Y. Josephs, assistant monitor; Philip Litman, secretary; E. Lasky, guardian; board of trustees, L. J. Marks, Julius Cohen and A. Holmberg.

A committee on bylaws was appointed by the president as follows: Julius Cohen, Robert Jacobs and Philip Litman.

Delegates to the national B'nai B'rith convention at St. Paul July 4 to 8, are L. J. Marks and Dr. L. M. Harris.
