Home Coming Day Will Be Noisy With Horns and Squawkers

Interest is becoming keen in the confetti booths and huts to be built this week for the Home Coming celebration on Saturday. The booths will be camouflaged in a maze of colors and crickets, confetti, horns, squawkers and muffles will be given to the uniformed men and sold to the others. The booths will be stationed in the center of each block of the designated district and the girls in charge will be in costume.

The amusement booth chairmen are Miss Caroline Lyder, Miss Elsie Silberstein, Miss Mary McGiffert, Mrs. George Reifstech, Mrs. Joe Gidding, Miss Vera Jeffery and Miss Patsy Watson.

The assistants will be the Misses Marsia Rood, Mary Towne, Miriam Noble, Betty Thompson, Ruby Britts, Katherine McGregor, Catherine Sherwood, Dement Sherwood, Elizabeth Stocking, Mildred Bondy, Arlena Frankman, Betty Scanlon, Jane Smith, Marlan Marshall, Ernestine Frankman, Betty Scanlon, Antoinette Phillips, Leonore Gidding, Esther Abrahamson, Mae Klein, Hortense Spiegel, Virginia Harding, Mildred Dunning, Gertrude McGiffert, Mary McCrae, Helen Bagley, Phyllis Shaw, Florence James, Ruth O'Donnell, Gertrude Collins, Dorothy Bush, Ruth Williamson, Margaret Mitchell, Rosemary Stone, Helen Seymour, Elizabeth Lynam, Elizabeth Gray and her guest, Maxine Spengler; Alison McBean, Irene Townsend, Marguerite Strange, Agnes Ewell, Gertrude Barnes, Virginia Nott, Elise Nott, Bernice Gardner, Grace Vollmar, Mildred Wall, Helen Hudson, Mary McGreevy, Agatha Norlan, Jeanette Boyer, Dorothy Germond, Winia Germond, Glenn McDonald, Kittle Hall, Winnifred Currier, Theresa Mendenhall, Elizabeth Mendenhall, Mrs. Hugo Freimuth and Mrs. Harry Gordon.
