

'HELLO BILLS' PLAN A GOOD TIME'

D. A. CONE.

C. D. ORECKOVSKY.

JACK M'GREEVY.

DULUTH Elks are planning the greatest of their annual picnics, Aug. 23 when local "Bills" will conduct their first picnic festivities since before the war at Fond du Lac. Elks, with their friends and families, will take the steamer Chlorea up the lake where the day will be spent in having a regular old-fashioned good time.

A 48-piece band will furnish music and head the parade that will be one of the features of the occasion. A ball game between married and single men, fat men's races, three-legged races, field sports, and other contests with plenty of prizes in each event will feature in the entertainment.

The best looking lady on the grounds will be rewarded for her comeliness and prizes will be awarded to the Elk with the largest family and the most popular Elk. Contests have been arranged for men, women and kids with prizes for everybody.

The committee in charge of the affair, are as follows: General committee—J. B. Clinton, chairman; E. J. Filiatrault, C. D. Oreckovsky, Joseph Guntrum, Earl Baker. Refreshments and transportation, C. D. Oreckovsky, E. J. Filiatrault, George Young, John Rissati, George King, Frank Trelese. Sports, E. F. Baker, D. A. Cone, Frank Pierce, John Mc-

Greevy, Concessions, Joseph Guntrum, H. A. Hutter, Brad Wheeler, Dean Holt, Howard Elliot, J. B. Clinton, Frank Pierce. Publicity, Stanley Mack, Fred H. Weinberg. Band, R. O. Bruen.