SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

PINK ROSES AND FERNS with bridal place cards were used in the table appointments at the attractive luncheon given by Mrs. A. M. Marshall in compliment to Miss Constance Mitchell at the Kitchl Gamml club yesterday.

Mrs. Marshall's guests, who included the women members of the bridal party and the wives of the ushers, were Mrs. A. M. Fish, mother of Irving D. Fish; Mrs. Oscar Mitchell, Mrs. Ray C. Helm, Mrs. Edward Guyer, Mrs. Harry Piper, Mrs. George Piper, Mrs. Frank Fregeau, Miss Betty Merrill, Miss Margaret Mitchell, Miss Carolyn Marshall, Miss Julia Marshall and the honor guest.

THE BRIDAL DINNER which Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Merrill gave last night at the Kitchl Gamml club for Miss Constance Moffitt Mitchell and Irving D. Fish, whose wedding tonight at the Pilgrim Congregational church will be one of the largest society weddings of recent years, was the last of a long series of prenuptial events for Miss Mitchell. Covers were laid for 32 at a table attractively decorated with pink roses, smilax and candelabra. The diners included the out of town guests and a few others.

THIRTY of the younger girls were guests at the kitchen shower and tea which Miss Cordella Collins gave yesterday at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Homer Collins, East First street, to honor Miss Adele Johnson, a bride of next week. The tea table was decorated with Christmas colors.

Miss Elizabeth Stephenson, who is to be Miss Johnson's maid of honor, entertained the briday party at dinner last night at her home on East First street. The guests included besides Miss Johnson, and her fiance, Gladson Fowler, Misses Elizabeth Horr, her guest, Ruth Aitkins, of Hartford, Conn., and Alexander Van Bergen, Gerard Spencer, Otto Lachmund, Laird Goodman, Harold Miles and Walter Johnson.

Mrs. R. McLaren Knox will entertain at her home on East Superior street this afternoon in compliment to Miss Johnson.

AMONG the affairs for tonight is the dancing party which Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Magle will give for their sons, William and John, at the Spalding. The guests will be the members of the college crowd.

SOCIETY—that is, the feminine portion, is much perplexed. Of course it is over the age old question of clothes. "What are you going to wear?" has been the leading topic all week. The proper dress for afternoon is easily chosen, so too is the proper dress for business, but just what should be worn to a tea in the afternoon in a buiness office is hard to answer.

Consequently the younger set who are to sip tea in the offices of the Carnegie Dock and Fuel company this afternoon as the guest of Fred Wolvin are in a quandary. Aside from the question of clothes there is much speculation as to just what is going to happen. Even the invitations on the firm's letterheads were most business like.

But the novelty is quite appealing and the host most popular as there have been no "regrets." Mrs. A. B. Wolvin and Mrs. O. W. McConnell of Helena, Mont., who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. G. Thomson, will be the chaperons.
