

committee. The heat proved no obstacle for the young girls who took part. The captains were Belle Myers, Miriam Solomon, Dorothy Cohen, Lillian Ginsberg, Bessie Stayman, Sara Frischberg, Katherine Neidorf and Anna Kleinman. The Y. W. H. A. sold flowers at the Atlas Club excursion.

TEMPLE AARON NOTES.

The annual picnic of the Hebrew and Sunday school of Temple Aaron was held at Wildwood on Monday last. The children were taken to the picnic in automobiles furnished by Messrs. L. Hertz, S. Stein, S. J. Goldberg, D. Simon and A. Schoenberg. At the park the children played games and refreshments were served them by the Ladies Auxiliary. Before returning Rabbi P. Kleinman read the promotion lists and announced the winners of certificates of honor and prizes. Prizes for greatest proficiency in Hebrew school studies went to Saul Herschkowitz, Jacob Pozmansky, Irving Perlman, and Samuel Nahinsky, while Ruby Lieberman, Milton Goldberg and Adeline Tenzer received prizes for proficiency in Sunday school work. These prizes were contributed by friends of the school. Certificates of honor for regular attendance, correct deportment and diligent study were given to Ruby Lieberman, Phyllis Grosby, Abe Harris, Milton Goldberg, Edward Birnberg, Leah Hertz, Irving Perlman, Minnie Zneimer, Sigmund Goldberg and Susan Fine.
