

EVELETH STUDENTS HAVE RETURNED FROM COLLEGES

EVELETH, June 22 — Many former graduates of the Eveleth high school have returned from universities and colleges.

Many went to work the morning after their arrival home at anything they could find. Several are working for the Oliver Mining company, while others have found places with the city, the school district and various business houses.

The list includes the following: Albert Robb and Arthur Carlson, Lawrence college, Appleton, Wis.; Benny Damberg, Milton Leander and Howard Gcard, Stout institute, Menominee, Wis.; Sam Stien, Edwin Culbert, James Culbert, Richard Eaver, Walter Carlson, Reuben Damberg, Earnest Lampi, Frank Bruce, Donald Cerveney, Donald Barnes, Joseph Samacola, Eli Onkka, University of Minnesota.

Marcus Rabinowitz who also attends the university remained in Minneapolis and is working in the interest of the Regent theater of this city.
