

HEARING SET FOR PAIR

ARRESTED ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Rudolph Arko, arrested on a charge of assault in the second degree, was held under $1,000 bail for hearing Oct. 11, by Judge F. H. Cutting in municipal court yesterday. Jennie Winograd, charged with assault and battery, was released without bail, and Alva D. Gile, arraigned on an abandonment charge, was held under $500 bail for hearing on the same date.

The cases of Mike Kenjalo, charged with violating the liquor ordinance, and of George Drennan, arrested on a charge of nonsupport, were dismissed for lack of evidence. Clarence W. Johnson, proprietor of a bakery, pleaded guilty to violating the fire ordinances and was released on suspended sentence. Lillie Goldberg pleaded guilty to selling cigarettes to minors and was fined $25.
