Successful Opening for Alliance Francaise Circle.

JULIUS ROMIEUX gave a splendid resume of the works of Dumas, father and son, at a meeting of the Alliance Francaise Tuesday night at the studio of Miss Josephine Carey. Passing from their works of fiction to their historical novels, Mr. Romieux gave some delightful bits of the fine descriptive passages and advised all travelers to read these works for the graphic pen pictures of the beauty spots of Europe.

Miss Crosby charmed the circle when she appeared in an interesting dance accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Paul Van Hoven. Mrs. Stella Prince Stocker told the fable of "La Grillon" to the delight of her hearers.
