

MEMBER OF PIONEER FAMILY BROUGHT HOME FOR BURIAL

Samuel Bloom, aged 48 years, a member of the Bloom family well known to the pioneers of Superior, died in Chicago and his body has been brought here for burial. The funeral will be Monday from Le Sage's undertaking rooms. Mr. Bloom left Superior 15 years ago to live in Chicago. He has relatives in Duluth and in Mesaba range towns. Rabbi Bloom of Hibbing being his father. Burial will be at the Jewish cemetery, out of South Superior.
