

MILITARY RITES TO MARK FUNERAL OF DULUTH SOLDIER

The body of Corp. Joseph Hurvitch, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hurvitch, 320 East First street, which arrived from overseas Sunday, will be interred today with full military rites. A firing squad from the Duluth chapter of the American Legion will compose part of the military escort. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from Fred Johnson's undertaking rooms, 514 East Third street.

Corporal Hurvitch left Duluth in September, 1917, and was dispatched overseas early in 1918 with the headquarters company of the Three Hundred and Forty-eighth infantry of the Eighty-seventh division. He died at a base hospital in France on Oct. 25, 1918, following an attack of influenza. Besides his parents, Corporal Hurvitch is survived by a brother, Leslie, and one sister, Sara.
