

HIDE THEFT FOILED.

BRainerd, March 18.—Thieves entered the barn where H. Perlman of the Brainerd Iron Metal company has stored from $200 to $300 worth of hides, tossed them out, and, alarmed in the midst of their work, left all in the alley near 407 South Seventh street, Perlman, early Thursday morning, went to his barn, found the loft door open and discovered his hides scattered about the alley and recovered all except two valued at about $10.
