

HOLDUP STAGED NEAR HIBBING; HINES POSTOFFICE ROBBED

---

HIBBING, April 13.—Edward Bublely, one of the owners of a dry cleaning establishment here, was held up on the road while driving a delivery auto between Kerr mine and the Carson location, and robbed of a wallet with $45, he reported to the police. He said a revolver was poked near his nose as he was ordered to "give me what you got."

The holdup man allowed Bublely to keep his watch and a bag of small change in his pocket.

---

BEMIDJI, April 13.—Robbers who broke into the postoffice at Hines, 20 miles north of here, last night obtained $300. Postmaster V. M. Owen of Hines brought that information to Bemidji today.