

DULUTH B'NAI B'RITH HONOR
BERNARD SILBERSTEIN

Bernard Silberstein

The greatest meeting ever held in the history of Covenant Lodge of Duluth, and probably the most notable affair ever staged by the Jews in that vicinity was the meeting and banquet held Sunday, May 1, when the Duluth B'nai B'rith honored Bernard Silberstein on the occasion of his jubilee as member of the I. O. B. B., which he joined fifty years ago in Detroit, Mich. Gathered at the Spalding Hotel, three hundred Jews of Duluth and vicinity gathered to do him honor and to hear some splendid tributes paid him. The principal speaker was Henry Monksky, of Omaha. Chas. D. Oreckovsky acted as toastmaster, who was introduced by S. B. Copilowisch, president of the lodge. A. B. Kapplin, chairman of the Jubilee Committee which arranged the details of the celebration paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Silberstein, and presented him a certificate of life membership in the I. O. B. B., an honor very seldom accorded. Other members of the committee were D. P. Fieldman, Ben Miller, Samuel Nides, S. B. Copilowisch, Jesse Cohen and C. D. Oreckovsky. Rabbi Israel Lebendiger gave the opening prayer. A class of sixty candidates was initiated, the degree team consisting of A. B. Kapplin, Chas. D. Oreckovsky, D. P. Fieldman, Dave Miller, Harry Gordon. The class was the largest ever initiated at one meeting of Covenant Lodge. Those present were unanimous in their opinion that the meeting was a most memorable one, and that Duluth Jewry in honoring Bernard Silberstein was honoring itself.
