Entertaining.

Mrs. L. Rifkin, 1210 Irving North, entertained at a farewell party, Friday evening at her home, in honor of her son Henry who left for International Falls where he is going in business. Supper was served to twenty-five guests. Dancing and games furnished the evening's amusement. Miss Florence Rifkin and Mr. Marvin Orrick contributed to the entertainment by recitations and songs.

A tea will be given at the home of Mrs. S. M. Silber, 127 Highland Avenue, next Tuesday afternoon, June 7th, for the benefit of the Mizrahi. A very good program is assured. Mrs. Silber wishes to extend a personal invitation to all her friends to come.

Miss Leah Levins, 540 Irving Avenue North, entertained Sunday, May 22, at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Pearl Mandel, a June bride. Covers were laid for 20 guests.

WEDDINGS.

Margolith-Goldberg.

Lag B'Omer was the occasion for a very pretty and impressive wedding ceremony when Miss Rachel Goldberg became the bride of Mr. Haim Margolith. The Talmud Torah was the fitting scene of this wedding, for it was here that the couple first met. The groom is an instructor at the Talmud Torah, while his bride was formerly a teacher there.

The services were read by Rabbis S. M. Silber and L. Seltzer of Minneapolis and Rabbi Phillip Kleinman of St. Paul before a canopy of white satin brilliantly illuminated by an electric Mogen Dovid. Mr. Max
