OLD FOLKS ENJOY MUSIC FEST
"This Shovuoth I shall remember to my last day," "It is a long time since I was so happy," "May the Ribinu-shel-olem let her live long so that others may enjoy her singing." These and many other comments of similar nature were heard everywhere in the parlor of the Jewish Home for the Aged, uttered by the thirty enthusiastic and elated old folks, inmates of the home, last Monday, (Shovuoth) afternoon, after they listened to a concert of Jewish folk songs and classics, rendered by Ada Rabineau, who deferred her trip to New York, especially for their benefit.
Miss Rabineau sang "Yom Kipur Zu Minch", "Moshelach, Shlomelach", "Riboinu-shel-Olem" and "Eli, Eili" in Yiddish, "Azra" and "My Curly-headed Baby" in English. She was assisted by Adeline Feinstein, violinist, and Lena Sachs, pianist. Hannah Goldberg and little Ralph Helstein rendered.
