

he conducted a department store, from which he retired a few weeks ago. Previously he had lived in Minneapolis. He is survived by his wife and one son, Dr. Maxwell Borovsky, three brothers, Morris, Louis and Albert, and four sisters, Martha Borovsky, Mrs. Nathan Eisenstadt, Mrs. Jacob Shedlov and Mrs. Anna Horwitz.

Mrs. Isaac Newman

Mrs. Isaac Newman, aged sixty-one, who passed away early Monday morning after a prolonged illness was laid to rest Tuesday afternoon, at the Montefiore Cemetery. Funeral services were held at the home, 3006 Colfax Avenue South, by Dr. S. N. Deinand. She is survived by her husband, Isaac, her son, Milton, two sisters and a brother who reside in the East.

TEMPLE ISRAEL NOTES

This evening's services will be the last of this season. Dr. S. N. Deinand will speak on "The Merit of the Fathers." Friday evening services will be resumed the first Friday in September. Saturday morning services will be held regularly during the summer at 10:30 at the Temple House.

C. J. W. NOTES

The annual picnic of the Sunday School conducted by the Council at the South Side Neighborhood House will be held Tuesday afternoon, June 28. Mrs. J. H. Schanfeld, Chairman, and members of the Religious School Committee, Teachers and the Junior Council are in charge of arrangements. Mmes. M. L. Cohen, David Simon, and J. W. Cohen have generously donated towards defraying the expenses of the picnic. About one hundred and twenty-five children will meet at one p. m. at the South Side Neighborhood House and twenty automobiles will convey them to Minnehaha Falls. Rides on ponies and games will furnish the entertainment. Refreshments will be served.

ADATH YESHURUN NOTES

Sabbath services at the Adath Yeshurun will be held on Friday at sunset, and on Saturday morning at 9.

Religious School Picnic

Tuesday was an enjoyable day for the children of the Religious School, who were taken for their annual picnic at Minnehaha Falls. They left the Synagog at noon in automobiles, and were taken to the Falls, where hikes, sight-seeing and games furnished an afternoon of enjoyment. Ice cream cones were served to all the children and to those of their parents who were present. The machines were kindly furnished by Messrs. Theo. Aaron, David Fishbein, Nathan Ginsberg, Max Graceman, Abe Hochman, H. Lewin, Aaron Rudoy, J. Weingarten, and J. H. Woolpy, and Mrs. F. Schanfeld. Mesdames Fishbein, Graceman, J. H. Schanfeld and Misses R. Halpern, Leah Schanfeld, Fannie Segal and Mr. Harold Mirvias, of the teaching staff, helped entertain the youngsters.

RABBI MATT IN ROCK ISLAND

Rabbi C. David Matt left on Thursday evening to visit Rock Island, Ill., where he will deliver several addresses in local synagogues. On Sunday, June 26, he will be the speaker at the annual B'nai B'rith Picnic of the Tri-Cities Lodges, an annual event of the B. B. Lodges of Davenport, Ia., Rock Island and Moline, Ill. Rabbi Matt will return on Monday morning.

ADDITIONAL JEWISH GRADUATES

Several names were inadvertently omitted from the list of the Jewish graduates of the University of Minnesota published in our last issue. We are pleased to list the following additional names: Bachelor of Science—Marie Cecilia Lurie, Angeline Joyce Wilk; Bachelor of Arts in Music—Esther B. Schanfeld; Bachelor of Science, College of Agriculture—Morris J. Lapidus; Doctor of Medicine—Burton Rosenholtz, B. S., M. B.; Doctor of Dental Surgery—Joseph Redler, Leo Harwin Siegel; Bachelor of Science—Esther Patricia Myers; Master of Arts—Solomon Fineman, B. S., M. D.; Heime Abraham Sternberg, B. S.; Albert Boris Clarfield, B. S., LL. B.

Sam Margulies Admitted to Bar

Sam Margulies, who has completed his course at the Northwestern College of Law, has been admitted to the practice of law in the state of Minnesota.

David M. Siperstein Honored

David M. Siperstein this year completed a brilliant career at the Medical School of the University of Minnesota, graduating with the highest scholastic honors of his class. During his course he also completed two years of research work in the Graduate School, receiving his M. A. in 1920. At the same time he was an instructor in the Department of Anatomy for fifteen months. His researches in medical fields are being published in leading national medical journals. His work in Inanition recently demonstrated before the American Anatomical Association in Philadelphia evoked favorable comment. He has read several papers on Pharmacological and Dermatological problems before the Southern Minnesota Medical Society. Dr. Siperstein is a member of Alpha Omega Alpha, the honorary Medical Fraternity, and of the Sigma Xi honorary scientific fraternity.

Dr. Daniel Ziskin Promoted

Dr. Daniel Ziskin was promoted this week to the position of Assistant Professor in the Dental College of the University of Minnesota.

HADASSAH TEA

The Hadassah will meet Wednesday, June 29th, at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. S. Lieberman, 1125 Upton Avenue North. Tea will be served, and a good program has been arranged, with Mrs. Arthur Brin as the speaker of the afternoon. The public is invited, and Mrs. Lieberman extends a personal invitation to all her friends to attend the tea.

GYMAL DOLED BASKET DANCE

The Gymal Doled Club announces a basket dance Wednesday evening, June 29, at Bass Lake. The committee in charge is arranging for an enjoyable, cool and successful dance and those who attend are assured a delightful time.

B'NAI B'RITH BOYS' CAMP

The B'nai B'rith Boys' Camp to be maintained at North Arm, Lake Minnetonka, will be opened Sunday, June 26th, and a grand opening will probably be held the following Sunday.

Forty boys will be accommodated every two weeks at this camp, which will be strictly kosher, and under the supervision of an expert instructor with years of experience. All boys are requested to register at once, either at the Talmud Torah, Adath Yeshurun Synagog, office of Dr. Geo. J. Gordon, 410 La Salle Building, and the office of David Phillips, 114 Washington Avenue South.

All the equipment has been purchased and is being set up so that the camp will be ready for occupancy when the first batch of boys are sent out.

A great deal of credit for the work accomplished thus far is due to the untiring efforts of David Phillips, Chairman, Ben Dockman, who purchased the equipment, Rabbi C. D. Matt, Dr. Jos. Stomel and Sig Harris, in addition to the other members of the committee who gave full cooperation and assistance. Of course, the greatest credit is due to Joseph H. Schanfeld, the father of the boys' camp idea, who has worked unceas-

Continued on page 12

N. GROSS

QUALITY FURRIER

Advises you to take advantage of the summer prices which are now available

YOUR WINTER FURS STORED ARE REPAIRED AT A NOMINAL COST

Phone Main 2724—We will call for Your Furs

823 Nicollet Avenue, Minneapolis

WEYER & TOSNEY KNITTING CO.

1406 WASHINGTON AVE. S.

FACTORY SALE OF LADIES' AND MEN'S ALL WOOL

Bathing Suits

Most complete line in the Northwest. Buy here at the factory and save from 25 to 50 per cent.

Start Your Savings Account Now

Deposits made up to July 10th will draw interest from July 1st

NORTH SIDE STATE BANK

Corner Plymouth and Washington Avenue North

Resources over one million dollars