

Duluth Zionists Delay Election Three Weeks

The election of officers for the Zionist Organization of America scheduled for the meeting last night at the Hebrew Institute was postponed for three weeks.

Rabbi Israel Lebendiger gave a talk on Zionism before the gathering attended by 40 members of the organization. A violin solo by A. Cohn was featured in a musical program.