

City in Tabloid

Starts on Business Trip.

John H. Thomasson, general manager of Bayha & Co., left last night for a 10-day visit to Kansas City and other points.

Craig Will Return.

Charles P. Craig, executive director of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater association, will return to Duluth Wednesday, it was announced yesterday. Mr. Craig has been in Washington and New York for several weeks. He will remain in Duluth a week before returning east, it is expected.

Traction Company Wins.

A verdict for the Duluth Street Railway company was returned by a district court jury in a suit brought against the railway company by St. Louis county. The plaintiff sought $1,000 damages alleged to have been sustained in a collision between an auto of the plaintiff's and a street car.

Woman Sues Street Car Company.

Trial of the personal injury suit of Ettie Ashford against the Duluth Street Railway company was commenced before Judge W. A. Cant in district court yesterday. The plaintiff claims to have sustained $2,000 damages, when the sudden jolting of a street car threw her against a window.

Lions Will Frolic.

The Lions' club of Duluth will give a stag party and banquet at the Commercial club Tuesday night, it was decided at the noonday meeting yesterday. John Chambeau, president, and Leon Le Tourneau, secretary, will attend a special convention of Lions' club officers of this district at Minneapolis, Nov. 23.

Schools Aid Red Cross.

Fourteen St. Louis county rural schools have reported a 100 per cent enrollment in Junior Red Cross. Miss Stella Smith, supervisor, said yesterday. Three hundred and nine pupils have purchased memberships, making a total of $77.25 collected for foreign and local relief work.

Fraternal Body Incorporates.

The Sons of Israel filed articles of incorporation with the register of deeds yesterday. It is a fraternal organization. Incorporators are Jacob E. Rachlin, Myer Markovitz, Joseph Pollinsky, Samuel Stein, Louis Fox, Hyman Segal, David Weinberg, Isadore Cohen and Samuel Mendelson.

Lime Company Suspends.

The Kelley Island Lime company filed a petition for dissolution in district court yesterday. The firm, which was organized in 1912, manufactured lime, cement and barrels. It ceased to do business, Jan. 4. The capitalization was $300,000. Shareholders are W. H. and R. H. Wagner, D. G. Cutler and W. H. Denham.

Code Change Framed.

An amendment to the Duluth builders code, drawn by Adolph Anderson, building inspector, providing that canopies and fixed awnings be constructed of metal and wire glass, will be presented to the city council Monday. The amendment also would prohibit the use of awnings and canopies as places of observation or reviewing stands.

Jury Awards Verdict.

M. M. McCabe was awarded a verdict for $200 in his suit against the American Railway Express company by a district court jury yesterday. The plaintiff sued for damages, alleged to have been sustained in a collision between his automobile and a delivery wagon of the defendants.

$8,000 Estate in Probate.

A St. Louis county estate valued at $8,000 was left by Henry A. Caldwell of Kitanning, Pa., who died Dec. 23, 1915, according to petition for probate of the will, filed with Judge S. W. Gilpin yesterday. The estate is left to his wife.

Auditor Gets Ill.

W. H. Borgen, county auditor, returned yesterday from a week's hunting trip with a 70-pound deer. Mr. Borgen hunted in the district north of Cusson.

Geologist Will Lecture.

Carl Zapffe, geologist for the Northern Pacific railway will speak on "Coal," at the monthly meeting of the Duluth Engineers' club at the Commercial club 8 p. m. Monday.

Eleven Alumnae Dine.

Eleven former college mates gave a dinner in honor of Miss Grace Hemingway, lecturer and story teller, in Duluth in connection with Children's Book week, at the Commercial club last night. All are teachers of Duluth schools. They are Misses Van Swanson, Zada Brunson, Edith Pyle, Lulu Carr, Anna Boardman, Katherine Miller, Anna Strandness, Helga Grederson, Mabel Munson, Laura Hill and Marian Cooper.

Manistique Goes Over.

Manistique, Mich., the first Michigan city in which the Theodore Roosevelt Highway association held its campaign, went far over the top, A. W. Tracy announced yesterday.

Bethel Will Aid Needy.

The Bethel Sunday school will receive donations of food and money, which will be used to fill Thanksgiving baskets for the needy, at 3 p. m. Sunday. The Sunday meeting is an annual affair to aid the needy of the city.

Frat Men Dine on Deer.

Dr. Harold Woodworth entertained the alumni of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at a venison dinner at the Kitchi Kammi club last night. Covers were laid for 10.

Woodland Club Meets.

The monthly meeting of the Woodland club was held last night in the auditorium of the Cobb school.

Pupils Hear Stories.

Miss Grace Hemingway, lecturer and story teller, delighted 1,300 school children with stories and readings yesterday afternoon at the Lincoln Junior high school auditorium. Two story telling hours will be held this morning at the Central high school auditorium, the first beginning at 9:30 a. m. and the second at 10:45 a. m. at which Miss Hemmingway will entertain students from the remaining schools.