

Tiny Tots Win Prizes

Aunt Betsy has awarded prizes to four Tiny Tots who are winners in the Puzzle Poem contest. Although prizes were open to six, only four Tiny Tots wrote the poem correctly. One Tiny Tot wrote the poem correctly but failed to sign a name or address. In writing to Aunt Betsy the Tiny Tots must be sure to sign their names clearly at the bottom of each letter. Remember to write on one side of the paper only—that is the proper way to write a letter.

Those who won the puzzle poem prizes are:

Helen McNulty, 24 North Sixty-third avenue West, Duluth.

Mildred M. Hall, 70-A Third street, Morgan Park, Duluth.

Mildred Gould, 4826 West Sixth street, Duluth.

Marguerite Laliberte, 5523 London road, Duluth.

This is the poem written correctly:

I saw a naughty gun one day
As I was walking in the wood,
And as I looked I heard him say:
"No, mother, no! I won't be good!
I won't no matter what you do!"
And then, before he ceased his talking,

His mother cut a stick. (I knew
The gun knew better soon. How shocking!)

Dear Aunt Betsy: I want to be a new member in the Tiny Tots' Corner. I am in the A fourth grade and I am 9 years old. I go to the Jefferson school. I wish to see my letter in print this Sunday. I have not much to say in my letter. I have just begun to read the Tiny Tots' Corner. I have quite a few friends that have a letter in the paper. Your loving niece, OSSIE WIDDIS.

PATRICK.

Duluth, Minn.

Dear Aunt Betsy: The writer of this letter is a little boy 7 years of age who has one sister. We all attend the St. James school and are very much interested in our school work, and love to listen to bed time stories, mostly the ones my father tell me about the Indians.

Yours truly,

PATRICK CAHILL.

Dear Aunt Betsy: Every time the Duluth Sunday News Tribune comes I look for the page of the Tiny Tots' corner. And find it very interesting. I am 12 years of age and am in the sixth grade. I go to the Cross River school. Your new member,

EVELYN JOHNSON.

PATRICIA.

Duluth, Minn.,
March 7, 1921.

Dear Aunt Betsy: My name is Patricia and I am only six years old and have gone to school only a year so I cannot write a very good letter. But I do so want to get into your Little Tiny Tots' corner that I am writing to you anyway. I like my sister to read the funny paper and the Tiny Tots' letter to me. So many boys and girls like to write to you. I think you must have many letters. I want to be one too. Please let me come into your corner. Next Sunday, I will see if you want me.

PATRICIA O'NEILL.

interested in the Tiny Tots' corner.

I am very glad when we get the paper every Sunday. I have two brothers and one sister. My sister and I go down to Duluth every Saturday to take music lessons. Miss Graham is our teacher and we like her very much.

I am in the fifth grade and in the B division, and I am 10 years old. Hoping to see my letter in next Sunday's paper. Your loving niece,

FLORENCE TIPPET.
