

DULUTH JEWS TO OBSERVE FEAST OF PURIM SUNDAY

The Feast of Purim, a Jewish holiday, will be observed with morning, afternoon and evening programs at the Duluth Hebrew institute Sunday. The morning program for children will begin at 10 o'clock and will include a piano solo by Sylvia Laskovitz, violin solo by Elsie Widdes, dance by Mary London, vocal solo by Selma Cohen, accompanied by Lillian Harris, dance by Helen Cook, a vocal solo by Lillian Harris, accompanied by Belle Harris, reading of a poem by Jennie Horwitz, address by Rabbi Israel Lebendiger, essay on Purim by Miss Sclarow, a piano duet by Cherry Rine and Ruby Goodman, singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," singing of "Hatikwa" and a vocal solo by Helen Segal, accompanied by Miss Shenowsky.

The programs for the afternoon and evening are for adults and include a piano duet by Ida Ostrowsky and Bessie Selden, violin solo by Aleck Cohen accompanied by Eva Bruesen, recitation by Ethel Kasmir, stereopticon pictures of ancient events celebrated at Purim services, a monologue by Roy Telch, piano duet by Bessie Litman and Anna Kane and a vocal selection by Helen Segal.