

200 ATTEND WEDDING AT COMMERCE CLUB ROOMS

Miss Evelyn Sorrella Kaner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Kaner, 701 John avenue, was married yesterday afternoon to Morriss A. Rudolph of Superior, son of A. J. Rudolph of Minneapolis.

The ceremony took place in the clubrooms of the Civic and Commerce association. The rooms were decorated with Easter lilies and lilies of the valley. Attending the bride and groom were Miss Hannah D. Kaner, sister of the bride, and Zollie Dworski of Minneapolis. Bridesmaids were Miss Edith Laskey and Elsie Dorf, and the best men Nathan Selgel and Phillip Halzberg, all of Superior. Flower girl was Miss Beatrice Stone of Stephenson, Minn., and the ring-bearer was Benny Selgel of Superior.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Aronson of Superior. About 200 guests from Superior, Duluth, Minneapolis, St. Paul and the range towns attended the reception given at the clubrooms last night for the couple.
