

HUNDREDS SEE HIBBING ODD

FELLOWS LAY CORNERSTONE

HIBBING, Aug. 1.—Hundreds witnessed the laying of the corner stone of the new Odd Fellows home at the corner of Josephine street and First avenue in South Hibbing, yesterday afternoon. Grand Master J. O. Wernitz of Moose Lake was in charge of the ceremonies. He was assisted by District Deputy Grand Master A. L. Bolton of Duluth and Past Grand Master W. A. Pettinger of Duluth. C. E. Everett made the address for the Hibbing lodge.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the day included Morton Markell, chairman; Ed Kestle, Peter Stavness, C. A. Heur, and C. Johnson.