Literary clubs are being formed and will be open to such young people as are interested in this work.
A Dancing pageant will be given by the Social Service department Sunday, January 15th, 3 to 5 p. m. Several solo dances will be the special features. Admission 10c.
For further information regarding the above, or any other activities, inquire at the Talmud Torah, or call Hyland 2161.

Rabbi A. M. Heller of the Young People's Synagogue will conduct a class in advanced Jewish History for the Sunday School teachers and leaders of the various Talmud Torah clubs. The class will meet Wednesday evenings at the Talmud Torah.

Y. W. H. A.
Mrs. Spain of the Women's Co-operative Alliance spoke before the Y. W. H. A. Monday evening, January 9. Her topic, "Social Hygiene," was well received, and an open discussion followed.

The Y. W. H. A. will hold a social meeting Monday, January 16, at the Talmud Torah. All members are requested to be present. Special features are being planned.

FLAG DAY A SUCCESS
Notwithstanding the mercury drop on Sunday, December 25th, Minneapolis raised for the 8th Annual Flag Day of Jewish National Fund, the sum of $303.13. $217.27 of this amount was raised on the North Side, and the balance on the South Side and West Side.

The success of the Flag Day is due largely to the efficient management of the Maccabean society, supported by the generous public and the following true blue Zionists who participated; J. S. Honig, Alex Himmelman, Louis Levinson, Manuel Ratner, Harry Fiterman, Albert Shepard, John Harrison, Joe Freier, Harold J. Mirviss, S. Amity, Samuel Dolf, Bessie Shapiro, Sarah Ritzen, Minnie Ezerer, Jacob Ebin, Freda Kern, Miss C. Karroll, Max Sodomsky, Jeanette Weisman, Dorothy Bearman, Edith Shedlov, Edith Levy, Hilda Rosenbleeth, Ida Weisman, Rose Barzon, Tibbie Kraman, Mitty Barzon, Ida Karroll, Anna Silverman, Ruth Scharf, Marie Guss, J. Forest, Rose Winoker, Rose Ravitsky, Edith Baker, Anna Trugman, Sadie Goodman, S. Guttman, H. Roger, Rose Barnett, Anna Roberts, Lillian Noosinow, J. Poyrow, Ethel Stein, Anna Goodman, Dave Kersh, Rose Baker, Grace Gordon, Anna Shapiro, Tina Ginsberg, Herman Mirviss, Florence Glick, Beatrice Gluckman, Jack Barnstein, Gladys Ginsberg, Elik Papermaster, Sam Ravitch, Sarah Litman, Josephine Weingarten, Blanche Halpern, Esther Frank, Sophia Cotlow, Hazel Saper, and Saul Helpner.

It is expected that our success this year, and in the past will stimulate the many smaller towns of the Northwest to fall in line next December.

GONDOLIERS CLUB DANCE
The young ladies of the Gondoliers Club of South Minneapolis, will be hostesses at an informal dance at the Teco Inn, Radisson Hotel, Saturday evening, January 21, 1922. Members are putting forth every effort to assure the success of the occasion, which bids fair to be one of the finest affairs of the season. Those in charge are the Misses Susan Kiefer, Polly Silver, and Marian Steinfeldt. Tickets may be procured from club members or upon entrance, at $1.50 a couple.

The Gondoliers last year gave a successful presentation of "Bright Eyes" at the Studio Recital hall.

MACCABEAN PROGRAM A SUCCESS
The Maccabean Society presented a splendid Hanukkah affair at the Talmud Torah Auditorium. The program was opened with the lighting of the candles and songs by the children of the Talmud Torah. Dr. Maurice Lefkowitz delivered a short but forceful oration on Hanukkah festival as well as an appeal for the Keren Hayesod drive. Mr. Zolton Brust rendered vocal selections of Jewish music. A ballet dance presented by Miss Vera Lieberman, accompanied by Anna Lieberman, was well received. The violin solo by Mrs. Marion Berenstein Bearman was masterful. The piano solo by Miriam Herscovich was excellently played. The program concluded with the singing of Hatikvah.

NO NEED TO STAND IN LINE FOR THE HEIFETZ CONCERT

Although the public sale of tickets for the Heifetz concert, to be given Friday, January 27, at the Armory, Kenwood Parkway, under the direction of Mrs. Carlyle Scott, will not start until January 20, mail orders will be filled now. That means that anyone in Minneapolis or St. Paul can mail in an order for any number of seats, enclosing check, addressed to the Cable Piano Co., and then can have their seats reserved for them without waiting in line at the ticket window. As the orders will be filled in the order they are received, the sooner reservations are made by mail, the better the seats to be secured.

A SAFE PLACE FOR YOUR SAVINGS AT 5 PER CENT INTEREST

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the Financial Statement of the Minneapolis Savings & Loan Association on another page, a mutual savings depository, all of whose profits go to the depositors. This company, in operation over 30 years, has total resources of $4,155,746.77, a showing unequalled in the history of savings institutions in the Northwest. Of this amount it had cash on hand and in bank on December 31, 1921, $399,178.91 to meet all possible demands for withdrawals in addition to over $750,000.00 in government securities convertible into cash at a moment's notice.

This showing is due to the fact that its loans are made on first mortgage real estate security in Hennepin County at six and one-half per cent interest payable in monthly installments.

The officers and directors of the association are well known, successful merchants and bankers of the city. Mr. Willis Endsley, its secretary and treasurer, is in charge of the business, and both depositors and borrowers will find it pleasant and profitable to entrust their financial affairs to this institution.

At The Hennepin Next Week Pearl Regay, with Ward De Wolf and the Rialto Versatile Five, will headline the new program which starts at The Hennepin, junior Orpheum, starting at noon Sunday. Jimmy Lucas, the composer of a number of popular songs including "Minnie Shimmie," "Don't Forget the Salvation Army," and others, will be in the position of added attraction, offering a travesty entitled "Vampires and Fools." He is assisted by Francene. Other numbers on the program are Lynne and Smythe in "A Racey Conversation," Anderson and Graves in a novelty skit entitled "Living on Air," Princess Kalamia, "the Pavlova of Hawaii," Norris' Baboons and Colliers, Wills, Gilbert and company in "The Masked Frolic," and the Minstrel Monarchs. The picture headliner for the week will introduce Alice Brady in "Hush Money."

RUSSIAN RELIEF MASS MEETING

A city-wide mass meeting arranged by the Minneapolis Committee for the Relief of the Russian famine sufferers will take place at the Auditorium, Eleventh street and Nicollet, Saturday evening, January 31, at 8 p. m. The speakers will be Senator Joseph A. France of Maryland and Mrs. Margaret A. Robinson, who had been imprisoned by the Bolsheviki. Bishop McElwain will preside. The public is invited.

TREAT FOR NEWSIES AT STARKEY'S

Remembering his own experiences years ago while he was a newsboy, Mr. Wm. T. S. Starkey, proprietor of Starkey's Delicatessen, at 414 Hennepin Avenue, was host to all the newsboys he could get hold of in Minneapolis at a dinner last Sunday afternoon, December 25, at 2 p. m. Mr. Starkey remembers what a thrill it was for him as a newsy to be dined and feted, together with his friends of the "Uxtree Paper, all about," and to register his approval of the custom of befriending the boy on the street, he gladly feeds the boys on special occasions. From all reports he enjoyed the dinner as much as any of his little newsboy guests.
