

Store Fire Drives Lodgers to Street

Twenty-three men lodgers at the Red Star hotel were driven into the street partially dressed, when fire broke out in the clothing store of D. Naymark, 519 West Superior street, last night. The hotel is above the clothing store. F. H. Hanson, assistant fire chief, set the loss at $1,000 to the stock in the store. The fire started from an overheated stove, he said.
